David H. Morris had a close call for his life while visiting Panguitch Lake a few days ago. A number of persons were in a house which was built of logs, and was up to the square, with studding and weatherboard gables. Lightning struck the gable and cut two of the studs and shattered the weatherboards and he fell to the floor, but was soon able to rise again and was very thankful to get off with paying his bill of fare and his head not much worse for the shock.

From all accounts Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a Godsend to the afflicted. There is no advertisement about this; we feel just like saying it.—The DEMOCRAT, Carrollton, Ky. For sale by J. R. Michels.

It should be noted that the time for Registration of the qualified electors in all precincts, prior to the election to be held November 3rd A. D. 1896, for the county of Washington, State of Utah, will expire at 8 o'clock P. M. on the 30th day of September A. D. 1896.

On September 4, 1896, the 14 years old son of Benjamin Blake, of this City, was riding on a load of Poles, and the team ran away, the wagon came uncoupled and his feet caught among the poles, and he was drug for some distance, bruising him up badly. Dr. Clift attended him and reports that his injuries are not considered dangerous. The accident occurred on the south of the Pine Valley mountain.

Judge E. V. Higgins gave us a pleasant call on the 9th. He purposes moving to Nephi so as to be located more centrally in the District.

In a recent letter to the manufacturers Mr. W. F. Benjamin, editor of the Spectator, Rushford, N. Y. says: "It may be a pleasure to you to know the high esteem in which Chamberlain's medicines are held by the people of our own state, where they must be best known. An aunt of mine, who resides at Dexter, Iowa, was about to visit me a few years since, and before leaving home wrote me, asking if they were sold here, stating if they were not she would bring a quantity with her, as she did not like to be without them." The medicines referred to are Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds and croup; Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the side and chest, and Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. These medicines have been in constant use in Iowa for almost a quarter of a century. The people have learned that they are articles of great worth and merit, and unequalled by any other. They are for sale here by J. R. Michels.
